CLOSED AT JACKSONVILLE.

MEETING AT MONCREIF PARK COMES TO A PROSPEROUS CONCLUSION.

Heart of Hyacinth a Surprise in the Chief Race of the Afternoon—Big Meeting Planned for Next Winter.

Jacksonville, Fla., April 17.—Today marked the close of the inaugural meeting of the State Fair Association of Florida. A brilliant gathering assembled, many prominent men in both the social and business life of Jacksonville being present. Speaker Ferris of the lower house was an interested spectator and he viewed the running of a couple of the races from the timbers' and judges' stand. Great predictions are being made for Jacksonville as a racing point next winter, and Messrs. Pons and Brown promise to make the plant one of the finest in the country.

Today's program comprised seven races, the feature of which was a handicap, at one mile, in which some of the best horses on the grounds started. The result proved a decided surprise, the winner turning up in the outsider, Heart of Hyacinth, which beat the McCarren three-year-old, Roseburg II., in a canter. That Heart of Hyacinth's victory was not a fluke was shown by the time, the mile being run in 1:45, which marked a new track record.

Favorites captured two of the races, the winning choices being Camel and Takahira. The latter was making his first appearance since coming out of winter quarters, and he simply made an exhibition of his opponents, leading at one stage by almost a dozen lengths. Camel's victory came only after a gruelling stretch drive, in which he just did manage to get up in time to nose out Earl's Court.

The work of Judge Joseph A. Murphy has made a hit with the local association and at a conference held this morning Mr. Murphy was asked if he would accept the position of presiding judge at Moncreif Park next winter. The judge was agreeable.

Previous to the races today Dillard Hill purchased Youthful of David Dunlop and the horse ran in his name and interests in the handicap this afternoon. Mr. Hill also added Malediction to his string. The price paid for each horse was $500. They will be shipped to Windsor and rest up for the Canadian meetings.

Jockey Lovell left tonight for Lexington, where he goes to join the stable of his employer, W. H. Fizer. Lovell is a capable rider and is sure to make his mark this season.

James Milton and E. D. Laurence leave for Columbia, S. C., tomorrow, where they will fill the positions of starter and presiding judge at the coming five-day meeting which opens there next week. Judge Murphy, C. C. Campau and Harry White leave for Houston tomorrow.

A warrant was sworn out for W. H. Brumfield on the charge of obtaining money under false pretense, but when the officers went to the hotel where Brumfield has been stopping, they found that he had already left.

A meeting will be given at Norfolk this spring. It is understood that the opening has been set for about the middle of May.

The ruling made against W. C. Capps ends with the present meeting. It was merely stated that entries would not be accepted from the latter at the present meeting and this does not affect his standing at other points.

MUST SECURE CANADIAN LICENSES.

Toronto, Ont., April 17.—The Canadian racing clubs are likely to adopt a policy of allowing no more than twelve or fifteen stalls to one owner at any track where racing is going on. The stall accommodation at all the tracks has been quite taken up at meetings for the last few years and there has been no lack of horses at any of them, even when two were in operation at the same time, as was generally the case with Montreal and Hamilton. This year the usual number of horses will be provided for, but the clubs intend to see that only such as are actually preparing for racing at each meeting are stabled there.

Applications for trainers' licenses with the Jockey Club of New York will not be numerous from Canada this year. In the past those licenses have been valid here, but henceforth licenses to train and ride in Canada will be issued by the Canadian Racing Association. Some of the people who have declared their intention of racing in Canada may find difficulty in securing the necessary qualifying document.

FIRST PREMIUM TAKES THE FEATURE.

San Antonio, Tex., April 17.—Cloudy and threatening weather held down the attendance at today's races, but did not deter more than an average number of Texans from witnessing the running of a good card.

The St. Anthony Hotel Stakes, at six and one-half furlongs, the feature of the afternoon's sport, was captured by J. W. Fuller's old campaigner, First Premium, after a terrific stretch duel with J. D. Grant's Kentucky Derby candidate, Trans-form.

It was announced today that the meeting here will close Saturday, April 24. Houston is scheduled to open on Wednesday, April 21, and Fort Worth on Thursday, April 29.

HIGH-CLASS RACING FOR DENVER.

Denver, Colo., April 17.—Obstacles seem to be out of the way and a race meeting is being planned for Denver under the management of John Condon, who has secured a lease on Overland Park.

The deal whereby the Interstate Fair Association,

RACERS NINE OR MORE YEARS OLD THAT CAN STILL TRAVEL WITH GOOD SPEED

The "glorious climate" seems to do wonders for horses as it does for mankind and California racing affords a surprising number able to run well at an age ordinarily considered past the limit of usefulness. It is true that they cannot do as well as when in their meridian of speed and fame, but it is a fact that many of the old ones are wonderfully track wise and will not run to their limit, except now and then when in the mood. Such one-time cracks as Proper and Deutschland showed last winter to be in full possession of their old-time speed, but to induce them to put it forth when in a race was quite another matter. The following table of oldsters of nine or more years is sufficient illustration and quite an interesting exhibit of well-preserved speed:

which controls the property, turned the park over to Mr. Condon, was made in Chicago ten days ago.

There is a preponderance of public sentiment in Denver and throughout the state in favor of racing, and a summer meeting here conducted along high-class lines and under Condon's management promises to be a winner from the start.

It is understood to be Condon's idea to make it a thirty-days meeting, but it is possible that it will be extended to fifty-two days, running it through fair week, September 2 to 7, inclusive.

The purses and stakes will be liberal enough, it is believed, to attract many of the best horses, and those who have discussed the proposition with Mr. Condon say that this is his intention.

No determined effort was made to force a racing bill through the legislature, which closed here April 4. Friends of racing believed that it would be better to leave the situation as it stands.

Stockholders of the Interstate Fair Association, which owns Overland Park, are the most prominent and influential business men of Denver and the state. All things considered, it looks as though Denver will have at least a thirty-days meeting of high order.

WHERE FRENCH BETTING PROFITS GO.

April 2 the question of betting on the race courses came up again before the French Chamber of Deputies. M. Ruan, the minister of agriculture, proposing to modify clause 4 in the Act of 1891, which makes it a penal offense to offer to bet with all comers. Nothing definite was decided, and the matter was adjourned until after May 18. The sum of $600,000 deducted from the pari-mutuel receipts has been expended in carrying water to thirty-two small towns and villages not provided with waterworks; and the one per cent. now taken for "special" purposes will continue to be devoted to this object. Meanwhile, there is a strong feeling growing up in France favoring the foundation of a club enclosure on the race courses, where owners and their friends can bet at fixed odds among themselves; but this is opposed in official circles.

WHITNEY AFTER STAR LIGHTWEIGHT.

London, Eng., April 17.—H. P. Whitney has offered a big retaining fee for the services for the present season of Frank Wootton, the English jockey, who was second with 129 wins in the list of winning jockeys in 1908. He rides at eighty-four pounds.

Frank Wootton, who is but fifteen years old, last year refused an offer of $10,000 a year with a ten-years engagement to ride for Veil Picard, the French sportsman. He is reported to have earned $25,000 last year. He might have beaten Maher's record of 139 wins last year but for the fact that he was under suspension for a month for unfair riding.

NEW YORKERS FLOCKING TO PIMLICO.

New York, April 17.—The first shipment of horses from the Long Island tracks to Pimlico has been made. In the lot were the horses of M. Kraus, James McLaughlin, William Lakeland, H. Harris and D. Delissa.

Tuesday another big shipment will be made, when Thomas Welsh, Frank McCabe, W. C. Daly and some others have made arrangements for the trip. The horses that will leave Long Island for the meeting of the Maryland Jockey Club are a very fit lot and should do particularly well.

GRAND TRIBUTE TO RACING.

TWENTY-FIVE THOUSAND PEOPLE TURN OUT TO ATTEST OAKLAND'S POPULARITY.

Only Meelick Wins for Hildreth of All His Starters and His Victory Proves Costly to His Owner.

San Francisco, Cal., April 17.—The racing was very wonderful and some of the greatest horses on the turf were contestants at Oakland today. Still, it was of secondary importance to the occasion itself, which marked the probable windup of the great sport in California. The public paid an extraordinary tribute to its popularity, 25,000 persons being there to voice a huge protest against its threatened extinction. Clubhouse, grandstand and enclosure were densely packed. Thousands were unable to get into the ring to place their wagers. The enthusiasm throughout the afternoon was simply indescribable. It was a local tribute worthy of the occasion.

S. C. Hildreth's stable was conspicuously prominent during the afternoon. Meelick, however, at 1 to 2, was the only one of his great trio of horses, including Restigouche and Dandelion, that made good, and his victory proved very costly to his owner, as H. G. Bedwell bid him up from $1,400 to $2,400 before he stopped. Hildreth retained his stake horse with the customary $5 advance. Meelick is the best horse that has ever started in a selling race on the coast.

Dandelion and Woodcraft failed in the Rutherford Handicap because they met a better horse in Stanley Fay, while bad racing luck beat Restigouche in the closing sprint.

The big two-year-old race was captured by Turret. The stewards are now looking for Scoville, who rode both Booger Red and Turret when beaten in preceding races.

This without doubt was the greatest and most memorable day's racing in every sense that has ever been seen on the Pacific coast.

LAST DAY OF SANTA ANITA RACING.

Huge Crowd Gathers to Bid Farewell to the Sport—Sad End of a Noted Turfman.

Los Angeles, Cal., April 17.—The popularity of southern California racing was attested today when a crowd conservatively estimated at 15,000 passed through the gates, witnessing one of the best cards of the meeting. The day was getaway day with twenty books drawing in.

After the fifth race Mrs. J. L. Holland, wife of the president of Santa Anita Park, presented jockey Howard, from the steps of the judges' stand, a beautiful silver cup for having the best average of winning mounts for the final week of the meeting.

Judge Hamilton will remain here three weeks before returning to his home in Mt. Sterling, Ky.

Secretary E. C. Smith goes direct to Baltimore, where he will be associate judge in the stand at Pimlico.

Judge Leighton goes to Victoria, B. C., where he will have charge of the summer meeting.

Manager Dr. Gardner will stay here long enough to close the business of the meeting and then go to his home in Kansas City.

The 122-day meeting was highly successful and the association has paid off the original money spent on the plant and declared a dividend to the stockholders.

G. W. (Bishop) Poole, known all over the United States as one of the old guard of horsemen, committed suicide this morning in the feed room of his stable. He took carbolic acid and then cut open the arteries of both wrists. Poole was despondent of late and has been in bad luck, and this is the motive assigned for the act. He leaves a wife and family, who live at Great Bend, Kan. They have been notified.

In the early days of Garfield Park, Chicago, Poole campaigned one of the largest stables today, owning horses of good class, such as Lorenzo, John Daly and Steve Jerome. His good long-distance mare, Florence P., was named for his daughter. Poole was well liked here and his sad ending is a complete shock to horsemen.

George Rose will go to Santa Cruz for a rest, but will be on hand for the opening day at Belmont Park. Harry Lurie and Sam Shaen, who will have charge of his book, will go to Chicago in a few days en route to New York.

Jimmy Donohue left for his home in Chicago last night. He will book on the eastern circuits this year.

The card was splendidly balanced throughout and a better day's sport was never seen here, in fact, the season closed under the most brilliant auspices.

SHOCKING DEATH OF G. W. POOLE.

George W. Poole took his life at Santa Anita yesterday. Poverty in his old age and despair over legislation threatening the existence of racing as he had known it, are said to have been the factors that caused it. His tragic death will come as a shock to many in Chicago, where, for many years as an owner in his own right and as a trainer for others, he raced horses for more than twenty years. "Bishop" Poole, as his intimates called him, was a Kentuckian by birth and was at one time associated with Ed Corrigan and Jim Carlisle in railroad building in Colorado, but had followed the calling of a turfman for over twenty-five years in the course of which he raced many good horses. His last prominence was when he trained the big stable of M. H. Tichenor & Co. He was a bluff-hearted man and a boon comrade of Corrigan, Dave Waldo, Tom Hurns, Jim Brown, Pat Dunne, Gene Leigh, Nick Hall, Charley Rummell and others prominent in Chicago racing of from ten to twenty years ago.

LATONIA MEETING OFFICIALLY ASSURED.

Chicoutati, O., April 17.—Harvey Myers, president of the Latonia Jockey Club, issued a statement this afternoon to the effect that the Latonia spring meeting will be held as advertised, irrespective of a final decision by the Court of Appeals. The stakes and purses will all stand. This statement was made after a consultation with Congressman Joseph L. Rhinock and J. B. Respass.

LEXINGTON RACING PROMISES WELL.

Program for the Seven-Day Meeting Is Modestly Liberal—All Ready for Action.

Lexington, Ky., April 17.—With knowledge of the horses that are here and coming, Secretary Shelley has made good conditions for the races.

The program calls for forty-two races—six each day for seven days, with aggregate of $10,500, or $1,500 daily. There will be five purses of $200 each, thirty-two of $250 each and five of $500 each.

Of the forty races announced eight are at four furlongs, four at four and one-half furlongs, four at five and one-half furlongs, ten at six furlongs, two at seven furlongs, two at one mile, four at one mile and twenty yards, four at one mile and one-sixteenth, one at one mile and one-eighth and one at one mile and one-quarter. There are twelve races for two-year-olds, six for three-year-olds, sixteen for three-year-olds and upward and six for four-year-olds and upward. Of the twelve for two-year-olds there are three exclusively for colts and geldings and three exclusively for fillies. Of the races for three-year-olds there are three exclusively for fillies and two for maidens. There are seventeen selling races—three for two-year-olds, ten for three-year-olds and upward and four for four-year-olds and upward. There will be three free-handicap races, for $200, $300 and $400, and all for three-year-olds and upward. The first will be at one mile on April 26, the next at five and one-half furlongs on April 27 and the third at one mile and twenty yards on April 28. The entries to these handicaps will close two days in advance of the running and the weights and acceptances will be announced the day before the race.

The book specifies that all races will be run under the rules of the State Racing Commission of Kentucky, provided that the conditions covered by the rules of the American Turf Association shall govern. In the purse races and overnight handicaps withdrawals will be permitted free of charge down to the number of eight.

Other than Secretary Shelley, there will be no paid official in the stand here this spring. There will be three judges each day, two in addition to Secretary Shelley, but they will be selected from the ranks of the breeders and owners. Among those who will preside on one or more days are: J. B. Respass, J. N. Camden, Jr., of the Kentucky Association and master of Hartland Stud; Major Foxhall A. Dainfield, manager of James R. Keene's Castleford Stud; Colonel E. F. Clay, vice-chairman of the State Racing Commission and master of Runnymede Stud; Colonel Thomas H. Clay, of the Balgownie Stud; Sanford Lyne, of the Larchmont Stud; G. D. Wilson, of the Iroquois Stud; Catesby Woodford, of the Raceland Stud; O. H. Chennault, of the Spendthrift Stud; Charles B. Hill, manager of Clarence H. Mackay's Kingston Stud; Edward Kane, manager of August Belmont's Nursery Stud and John S. Barbee, of Glen-Helen Stud. This will give the meeting something of the atmosphere of the old days when the turf was exclusively the province of the aristocracy and the judges were always selected from the ranks of the breeders and owners, who very properly considered it a high honor to serve in the stand.

An average lot of jockeys will be here to do the riding. Vincent Powers is expected, will come this way. J. C. Milam has secured first call on the services of M. Preston, the arrangement having been made with Phil T. Chinn, Jockey Frances, who is under contract to E. A. Brennan, the Hoboken owner, has already reported to trainer Len Marders. Jockey Lovell will be here from Jacksonville to ride the W. H. Fizer horses. McGee, who is under contract to Henderson & Hogan, will take mounts. Fearfully, who came here from Memphis about a month ago with the idea that he had grown too heavy for future saddle work and with the intention of journeying on to his home at Brooklyn to go into some mercantile business, began galloping horses and found that he will be able to ride as light as 110 pounds, so he has decided to continue as a jockey. Tommy Taylor has been galloping horses regularly all winter and is another who will be in the 110-pound class. He is a good boy on two-year-olds particularly, and has been in demand. Jockey Hebel has been engaged to ride J. N. Camden, Jr.'s horses. He will have some mighty good material under him and will have no excuses on that score. Jimmy Butler, who had his arm broken in California, will hardly be in shape to ride here. He will probably not make his re-appearance in the saddle until the Louisville meeting is well advanced. Hufnagel is coming to ride A. J. McDowell's horses. James Hicks will ride the stable of T. C. McDowell. Paze will probably come on from California to Louisville with the St. James Stable and take mounts here as a free lance. Skirvin, who is now at Latonia, is also to be out of the starting and he will find the local youngsters probably less troublesome than in previous seasons. They have been going to the barrier every day for the past two weeks and the schooling will be kept up until the meeting opens and after that necessary. Frank Morrow, who has for several years been an assistant starter, has been the presiding genius at the barrier for the past week and he is to continue until Thursday, when he departs for Baltimore to work at Pimlico. Under the direction of superintendent James Ross, the track has had constant attention all winter and spring and it will be in better condition for racing than it was last year.

The betting will be through auction pools, with Jockey Lovell to do the selling, and through pari-mutuel machines, with Eugene Elrod in charge of the crews.

There is everywhere a disposition on the part of the people to help the meeting. The streets leading from the heart of the city to the track be put in perfect condition for driving—and the meeting will open with better than ordinary prospects for success.

KENTUCKY DERBY HORSES LOOMING UP.

Respass' Wintergreen Still Favorite, but Others Are Attracting Attention.

Louisville, Ky., April 17.—With conservative judges insisting that the Kentucky Derby is more of an uncertainty than it has been in many years, the students of form are analyzing the chances of the various eligibles besides Wintergreen, which still rules as the first choice.

Friend Harry, a chestnut colt, by Orlando—Alice Brand, which belongs to Edward Alvey, is, barring accident, a sure starter in the big event. This good colt has been campaigned on the Pacific coast under the direction of Grover Baker and J. C. Ferriss.

At Santa Anita, on last Tuesday, Friend Harry was started in a six-and-one-half furlong dash, in which he finished second to Homereck, a 4 to 5 favorite. He ran well. It was his first start in a long time. The colt has shown at his best on the coast, but now he is rounding to and competent critics express the belief that he has much more than a chance to capture the Derby. It is known that this game colt is receiving careful preparation and it is certain that by the time he reaches Churchill Downs he will be ready to run a good race.

Alvey paid $8,000 for Friend Harry and he purchased Pinkola from W. H. Fizer at the same time. This classy performer is in condition and he, too, is expected to win many races this spring and summer.

The news was quietly circulated during the week that Michael Angelo, owned by George Hendrie, and trained at Cumberland Park, Nashville, had been working in sensational time and seems to figure as a contender in the Derby. The colt has not heretofore done anything to warrant the supposition that he is of Derby class. John Walters is training him.

Rome Respass' Derby candidates, Wintergreen and Rockcastle, have not worked in sensational time this week at Churchill Downs, but until Thursday the track was not in condition to justify fast trials. However, Wintergreen was sent a mile in 1:45 and Rockcastle in 1:44. It is thought now Wintergreen will be the sole dependency of the Respass barn, and the majority of track sharps still firmly believe that this one will win. The question, though, is invariably asked: Can a Dick ceize colt stay the Derby race? Will he be ready to run a mile, he is secure in the belief that the prize is his.

V. Powers will ride Wintergreen in the Derby, unless he goes abroad.

W. J. Young's Direct and Warfield, eligibles to the Derby, are working along fine at Churchill Downs. The first of the week Direct was sent three-quarters in 1:14 and Warfield in 1:16. Later Direct was sent a mile in a shade less than 1:44.

Norbit Hynes, the show horse of Churchill Downs, will not, it is almost certain, start in the Derby. The other day he struck himself on the right foreleg and he is slightly lame. His owners, Al Kirby and F. B. Respass, hardly expect to have him ready for the big race. Norbit Hynes is a replica of John Carroll.

Another one, Louis Greenberg, will not go to the post for the Derby. This strapping colt looks the part of a Derby colt until he is asked to work. Then a half mile suits him best.

Lon Jones says he has a string of fifteen high-class racers at Lexington. Fizer's rider will be Val Lovell, a crack apprentice, who can climb into the saddle weighing no more than ninety pounds. Fizer says this lad is the coming star among jockeys. He has him under a five-year contract.

James Flannigan has arrived from Oakland, having in charge Charles R. Ellison's Royal Tourist and Jacobite and Colonel W. E. Applegate's Derby colt, Sempronius. The racers withstood the journey satisfactorily. Ellison, who is in charge of the Ellison racers at the Downs, Colonel Applegate says that in all probability he will start Sempronius in the Derby.

James Flannigan, in addition to looking after the Applegate horses, has a pair of his own—Captain Kennedy, a useful performer, and Aunt Rose. Flannigan had a good season on the coast. To show that he is not worrying about the future he will become a bridegroom next week. His bride-to-be is Miss Julia O'Donnell of Louisville.

Entries in the Gentlemen's Cup, which is to be decided May 18, at Churchill Downs, are attracting wide attention for the reason that previous winning riders of the event are eligible. Secretary Davis has received several entries. It is certain this race will be a good one.

The following owners and the number of horses which will be raced by them at Churchill Downs, will ship from California on the Lexington race, before April 25: Tom Shaw, 3; Mike Daly, 4; Bishop Coole, 1; James Griffin, 6; James Gass, 4; W. H. Baker, 3; Phil King, 6; H. McCoulskey, 2; J. C. Ferriss, 10; Wayne Jolin, 3; W. J. Speirs, 3; C. V. Powers, 1; J. W. Miller, 5; J. E. W. Young, 2; St. James Stable, 10; Edward Alvey, 8; Henderson & Hogan, 18; James Arthur, 4; Tom Stevens, 5; J. Blute, 12; Al Blute, 4; Spence & Gering, 2; Barney Schreiber, 12; and Pat Kneebkamp, 5. This is by far the largest number of horses ever made from the coast to Churchill Downs.

BIG ENGLISH RACES THIS WEEK.

One of the most important of the early English race meetings comes off at Epsom Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. Two of the great handicaps of the year, the Great Metropolitan at two miles and a quarter and the City and Suburban at a mile and a quarter, are the special features. Only one American horse, Dinna Ken, is in the Great Metropolitan and jointly with the English horse, Glacis, has been given the top weight of 128 pounds. He is not a probable starter.

The City and Suburban presents a different aspect in respect to possible interest for Americans. Ballot is top weight at 131 pounds and since he has been backed to some extent, may now be considered a probable starter. Other Americans in the race are the unbeaten Priscillian, 126 pounds; the Two Thousand winner, Norman III, 117 pounds, and Mr. Whitney's Delirium, 110 pounds. Last year Delirium won the City and Suburban, carrying 122 pounds. This year he was given 128 pounds and at latest advices was favorite in the ante-post betting at 7 to 1. Considering that he is eight years old, it would be a wonderful thing if he should even be placed.

Other stake races of the meeting in which American horses are entered are the Westminster Plate, Great Surrey Handicap, Nork Plate and Hyde Park Plate. Messrs. Keene, Belmont and Whitney are all well represented and the many American lovers of racing now in London are likely to have their patriotism ardently appealed to and, let us hope, to their financial betterment.

The latest available betting, that of April 6, presented the following quotations against the earliest fancied candidates, with the probability that radical changes may have taken place by this time:

THE CITY AND SUBURBAN.

(Distance, about one and one-quarter miles. To be run Wednesday, April 21.)

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The Grand National winner, Luitreux III, has been sent back to France.

Rubio, the American steeplechase horse, has been struck out of the Grand Steeplechase de Paris. His legs are in a bad way.

Trainer William Hogan, of New York, has sold Field Marshal, a four-year-old bay horse by Hamburg—Field Argent, to a Pittsburg horseman. He will be used as a hunter.

At the Longchamp (Paris) course, April 4, the gate money was $24,000 and the turnover at the pari-mutuel $548,030, this being $100,000 more than on the corresponding day last year.

A ten-day race meeting under the auspices of the Oklahoma Jockey Club began at Lawton, Okla., yesterday. More than 100 horses from Texas and Oklahoma are there for the meeting.

It is reported that Pat McInerney, the steeplechase jockey, died recently in Newark, N. J. For several seasons McInerney rode the J. W. Colt and Bartlett McClellan's chasers with fair success.

At the Johannesburg Turf Club meeting recently W. Clements, the lightweight jockey, who rode in England last season, steered four of the six winners and was second in each of the others.

Charles Casey, the trainer of Aimee C. and Fore, has arranged to race on the metropolitan courses this season. A few years back the fast French mare, Ginnette, raced well while trained by Casey.

Frank Doss, successful for many years on the turf as jockey, owner and trainer, has decided to retire from racing and will go into business in San Francisco until the prospects for the spring are brighter.

There are fifty-nine horses in the Austrian Derby, and of these fifteen belong to German owners, inclusive of Fervor, Stossvogel and Gutfreund. The last-named is in England in S. Darling's string at Beckhampton.

Fred Archer, the great English jockey, once made a shrewd retort to a fair owner who asked him why he did not come out to win his race earlier, instead of being beaten: "Well, my lady, I couldn't come without the horse."

Robert Slevier's Winning Post, a weekly sporting paper, lands trainer Joyner as an excellent man in his business. It says training as he does for gentlemen who run their horses on turf starting lines is a welcome addition to the English turf.

Frank Gardner brought out his good three-year-old colt, Statesman, Thursday and worked him along smartly for seven furlongs in 1:32 1/2. This is the best move he has shown this season and it was particularly impressive, from the manner of its accomplishment.

James Rowe is beginning to permit the Keene string to step along a bit freely. Thursday the two-year-olds Herdsman, Grassmere, Sweep, Black Gnat, Degree, Flashing and Hibernica, after a useful canter, were worked together for three furlongs in 42 1/2 seconds. Colt, Casque, Turncoat, Maskette, Ultimatus, Henley and Sunbury, after a long canter, stepped along for three furlongs in 42 1/2, and galloped out to the half in 56.

TRAINING GALLOPS AT LEXINGTON.

Lexington, Ky., April 17.—With warm weather and a good track as favorable factors the horses are being sent along in lively fashion over the local track. Some of the best moves of Friday were:

Ada Menck—Mile in 1:44 1/2, handily.

Terah—Mile in 1:45, easily.

Petulant—Same, handily.

Zipango—Three-quarters in 1:15, pulled up seven-eighths in 1:30 1/2, best of the morning.

Ludiana—Three-quarters in 1:15 1/2, pulled up; seven-eighths in 1:31, impressively.

Refined—Three-quarters in 1:17, kicked out.

Huck—Same, handily.

Zarape—Three-quarters in 1:17 1/2, tiring.

Barwick—Three-quarters in 1:18, tiring badly.

Lady Orimar—Five-eighths in 1:02 1/2, handily.

Danette—Five-eighths in 1:03, impressively.

Snake Mary—Same.

Leshman—Five-eighths in 1:05, easily.

Red Shawl—Same.

Lajeune—Five-eighths in 1:04 1/2, all out.

Dr. Barkley—Three-eighths in 36 1/2, breather for tomorrow's mile.

G. M. Miller (Lissak Subdue colt, belonging to E. A. Brennan, Hoboken, N. J.)—Three-eighths in 36, best of the morning, and is a runner, surely.

John McClure (27 pounds up)—Three-eighths in 36 1/2, good prospect.

Ruby Netherlands—Three-eighths in 36 1/2.

Martinez and Zoroaster—Three-eighths in 36 1/2.

Round Lambert—One-half in 51.

Today some two-year-olds, among them Ocean Bound, Flying Footsteps and Fighting Bala, worked three-eighths in better than 37; Bonnie Bee and C. A. Leeman, halves in 49 1/2; Ovelando and Dainty Bame, five-eighths in 1:03; and Ohelda and Jack Baker, three-quarters in 1:15 1/2.

The Kentucky Derby candidates, Miami and Dr. Barkley, worked a mile each. Miami stepped three-quarters in 1:15; seven-eighths in 1:28 1/2; and cantered out the mile in 1:49. The more the trainers see this horse the better they like his chances for the big prize at Louisville. Dr. Barkley, had he been properly rated, could have worked his mile in possibly 1:43. As it was, he went one-eighth in 1:11 1/2, one-quarter in 1:23, three-eighths in 35, one-half in 47 1/2, five-eighths in 1:01 1/2, three-quarters in 1:15 1/2 and the mile in 1:43.

The string of G. W. J. Bissell arrived today from Jacksonville. The horses are Red Hussar, Lady Baldu, Icaria, Robin Grey, Harkaway and the two-year-olds, Maudie, Ladyford, Sly Ben, Lou Lanier, Marion C. Amerique and Mettie Beaud. The last named is very speedy.

Among the foals of this week at Castleton Stud are a chestnut colt by Voter—Lady Reel, dam of Hamburg, and a chestnut filly by Hippodrome—Edith, dam of Pope Joan. T. C. McDowell's Lucy Locket, dam of Kitty Fisher, foaled a chestnut filly by Octagon last night.

Catesby Woodford today reported the loss of the suckling sister to Whimsical and the filly foal by Marta Santa—Sardine. This leaves twenty foals at Raceland Stud. Bonnie Blue is due to foal to Meddler.

At Iroquois Stud Naughty Lady has a chestnut colt by Adam.

John E. Payne has sold the chestnut mare, Capri, by St. Blaise—Brindisi, to W. T. Goodloe of Big Stone Gap, Va.

Dora F. by Cademas—Nereid, died at the St. James Stud while foaling to Woodsthorpe.

SAN ANTONIO ENTRIES.

Probabilities: Weather clear; track fast. Racing starts at 2:30 p. m. (Chicago time 2:30.) X Runs well in mud. @ Superior mud runner.

Time, 24½, 49½, 1:14½, 1:42, 1:45½.
Winner—B. g. by Rockton—Lady Primrose (trained by F. D. Weil).
Went to post at 1:22. At post, 2 minutes. Start good. Won entering; second and third driving.
Rockstone, luckily and unwarily placed, drew out at the half and won off under a pull. Tennessee Boy took a quick lead and made the middle running and finished a game second. Colbert, nearly left, closed a big gap. Elevation, after poorly, steadily improved his position. Taunt was prominent for seven furlongs, but failed to stay. Tommy Ahearn, from a poor start, ran into quick forward contention, but quit and pulled up lame. Cabin was pulling up all the way. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.
Scratched—8084 Billy Watkins, 98.
Overweights—Kilpatrick, 3 pounds.

SIXTH RACE—1 Mile and 50 Yards. (69280—1:41½—4—98.) Purse $400. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling. Net value to winner $325.

Winner—B. c. by Hastings—Lady Madge (trained by H. G. Bedwell).
 Went to post at 4:14. At post 1 minute, Start straggling. Won driving; second and third the same.
 Madge and her driver and won all the way, but just lasted long enough and was lucky. Boomer Red ran in forward and persistent pursuit of the winner throughout and was wearing him down fast at the end.
 Rose Queen, after inside nearest pursuit, was crowded out in the stretch, then just failed to get up.
 Madge, after outside nearest pursuit, was crowded out in the stretch, then just failed to get up.
 Having an inside rough journey, could never get up. Jeanne d'Arc, outrun to the stretch, finished fast.
 Bellwether, prominent early, tired in the closing drive. Bubbling Water was nearly left and hopelessly outpaced all the way.
 Scratched—(8025) King James, 132; 81076 Woodcraft, 98.
 Overweights—Bellwether, 2 pounds.

SHIELDS' HORSES APPEAR PROMISING.

Toronto, Ont., April 17.—W. Shields, a Canadian by birth, for the first time in his racing career, has wintered his horses in Canada. Last fall he decided to try a Canadian winter and sent his string to the Dryden farm at Barrie. The horses went into winter quarters after a hard season's campaign rather than to race, but they show the careful handling they have had and look at their best. Keldmoore, which was the bread-winner for the stable last season, looks more like a two-year-old than a six-year-old. He has taken on a lot of weight, which will give his trainer something to work on.

Al Busch and Jim Parkinson, which did not do particularly well as two-year-olds last summer, have developed into fine-looking three-year-olds, having grown and filled out. This pair will be liberally entered in the events for three-year-olds all through the Canadian circuit. Old Holscher, which went wrong last fall, has wintered wonderfully well and will be once more sent to the races. Since bringing the horses from Barrie to Toronto Mr. Shields has added three to his string in W. I. Hinch, Occidental and Al Herford. W. I. Hinch is a fair sort of a selling plate and will be useful in overnight purses. The filly, Occidental, ran some good races as a two-year-old last season and should show improvement this year. This filly is one of the best-bred of those that has ever come to Canada, being by Montana out of the mare Lisanne. Al Herford is a likely-looking two-year-old, being well set up with plenty of bone. He should be a weight-carrier from the way he is coupled and will take some beating. Al Herford is by Locohatchee out of the mare Cleopatra, which has dropped some great foals.

William Shields will now have a public stable this season and will have some good horses to train. He has now four horses for Robert Davies under his care, including two plate, a two-year-old and the jumper, Capstan. The two-year-old is an especially good-looking one, being well set up with both good looks and showed some speed as a two-year-old last fall. They are both by Orme Shore. Several American owners have written asking Mr. Shields to take some of their horses so that he will probably have one of the largest string of horses to track this year. Trueman, who had a bad fall last year which kept him from doing as good work in the saddle as he was capable of doing, will ride for the stable.

THE REFORMATION OF LITERATURE.

"The senate at Albany has already passed the bill which we reproduce in full herewith," says the New York Sun:

"A person who, by writing or printing, or by circular or letter, handbill, placard, chart, summary, telegram, telephone, news, or otherwise, by any method, advertises or publishes any statement setting forth the betting odds which have been offered, which are being offered or which are expected to be offered upon the result of any trial or contest of skill, speed or power of endurance of man or beast, whether held within or without the state, or upon the result of any lot, chance, casualty, unknown or contingent event whatsoever, whereover the same may occur, or who either before or after such trial, contest or event, places, places advertisements or publishes any information, account or report concerning the terms of any pools sold or offered for sale, or of any bets or wagers made or offered to be made within or without the state, upon any such trial, contest or result, or with respect to any such given or prognostications made concerning the same, or who advertises or publishes any advice as to such betting odds, or which is designed to facilitate pool-selling, bookmaking or the making of bets or wagers upon such trial, contest or result, is guilty of a misdemeanor."

"We direct the attention of the book publishing trade to the provisions of this measure. Under its terms the highly respectable head of a highly respectable publishing house will be liable to prosecution and may be sent to a penitentiary or county jail for a year and fined $500 if he dares to publish an account of any historic sporting event, such as a race, a prize fight or a jumping contest, and includes therein a record of the wagers made on the result."

"The publication of memoirs containing references to famous bets will become a dangerous business."

"The elimination of many famous passages in a number of interesting historical narratives will be necessary if they are to be sold in this state."

"The intimate stories of the lives of certain of the most famous men in history must be re-written if their publishers and vendors are to escape the long arm of the law."

"The virtue, wisdom and independence of our legislators continue to inspire the highest respect and the warmest admiration."

THE PROWESS OF OLD RED LEAF.

Old Red Leaf seems to be at her best just now. In the last three weeks she has won four races, and the Keene stable is hardly likely to retire her, as was threatened. The chestnut daughter of Heremence—Readina has been racing six seasons and in them has won thirty-eight races and $28,310.

Readina, her dam, now owned by Mr. E. Madden, is twenty years old, and is by Mr. Pickwick—Messalina, by John Morgan. Readina was an extremely fast mare and well known for her victories in Chicago, where she raced seventeen years ago in the colors of J. B. Malone, who was off and on presiding judge at Hawthorne. Readina is also the dam of the fast Hoarby, by Plaudt.
